ROHE

COLLECTION BY OBSCURA

Our collection is a celebration of art, culture, and curiosity. We salute individuals who understand the importance of art, culture, and aesthetics in their lives and wish to live with products around them that reflect their values. Our essence is based on an in-depth appreciation of all these intricacies. With everything we manufacture, we wish to contribute to a more beautiful, more conscious, and more meaningful world. This is why our furniture has been designed not only to look good and be functional but also to tell a story, raise an emotion, and leave a lasting impression.

ROHE SOFA

Rohe brings architectural precision and comfort into perfect harmony. Its sculptural silhouette and flowing lines create a sense of balance and presence in any interior. The interplay of rich textures and refined materials defines a new language of contemporary elegance. More than a sofa — it's a statement of sophistication and calm luxury.

ROHE SOFA

Main Structure

Built from the fusion of plywood and solid wood, Rohe’s frame achieves exceptional durability and refined craftsmanship. The seamless construction forms a strong yet elegant foundation for its distinctive silhouette.

Upholstery

The outer shell features our exclusive monobrand pattern, embossed onto genuine leather, showcasing both artistry and identity. Inside, a premium fabric upholstery provides superior softness and comfort, balancing texture and tone.

Seating System

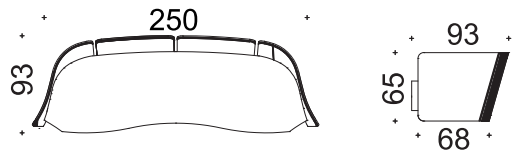

The seat is crafted with a layered foam structure, composed of carefully selected densities to ensure balanced support and long-lasting comfort. Each layer works in harmony to deliver a seating experience that is both plush and resilient.

Detailing

Encased with fine titanium-coated stainless metal trims, the outer frame reflects meticulous attention to detail and subtle luxury. Every element is crafted to perfection — from front to back, each surface receives equal precision and care.

Design

An original creation of our in-house studio, Rohe stands as a symbol of modern craftsmanship — bold in form, flawless in finish, and timeless in presence.

We believe that furniture has the power to gather people, strengthen their bonds, and create feelings of community and belonging. We are excited to be a part of this process, and we are optimistic for the future of our sector, and in fact, the entire world.

ROHE ARMCHAIR

Rohe stands as a bold expression of modern design and architectural balance. Its geometric form and layered textures create a sense of quiet strength and refined comfort. Soft upholstery meets structured lines, delivering both visual harmony and inviting relaxation. A statement piece that transforms any space with its sculptural elegance and timeless presence.

ROHE ARMCHAIR

Main Structure

Built upon the perfect fusion of plywood and solid wood, Rohe offers both strength and stability while preserving a sense of crafted refinement.

Outer Frame

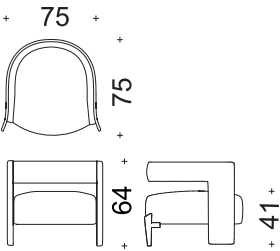

Detailed with stainless, titanium-coated metal, the frame adds a touch of contemporary sophistication and enduring durability.

Upholstery

A distinctive combination of premium genuine leather—embossed with our monobrand signature—and a specially selected fabric, creating a tactile contrast that enhances its luxurious appeal.

Design

An exclusive, registered design by our studio — blending modern geometry with timeless craftsmanship to create a piece that is as iconic as it is comfortable.

We believe that the world is an exciting and inspiring place despite all troubles. We project infinite opportunities and resources for growth, productivity, and beauty. This optimistic stance is reflected in everything we do, from the design of our products to our approach to interacting with our customers.

ROHE CHAIR

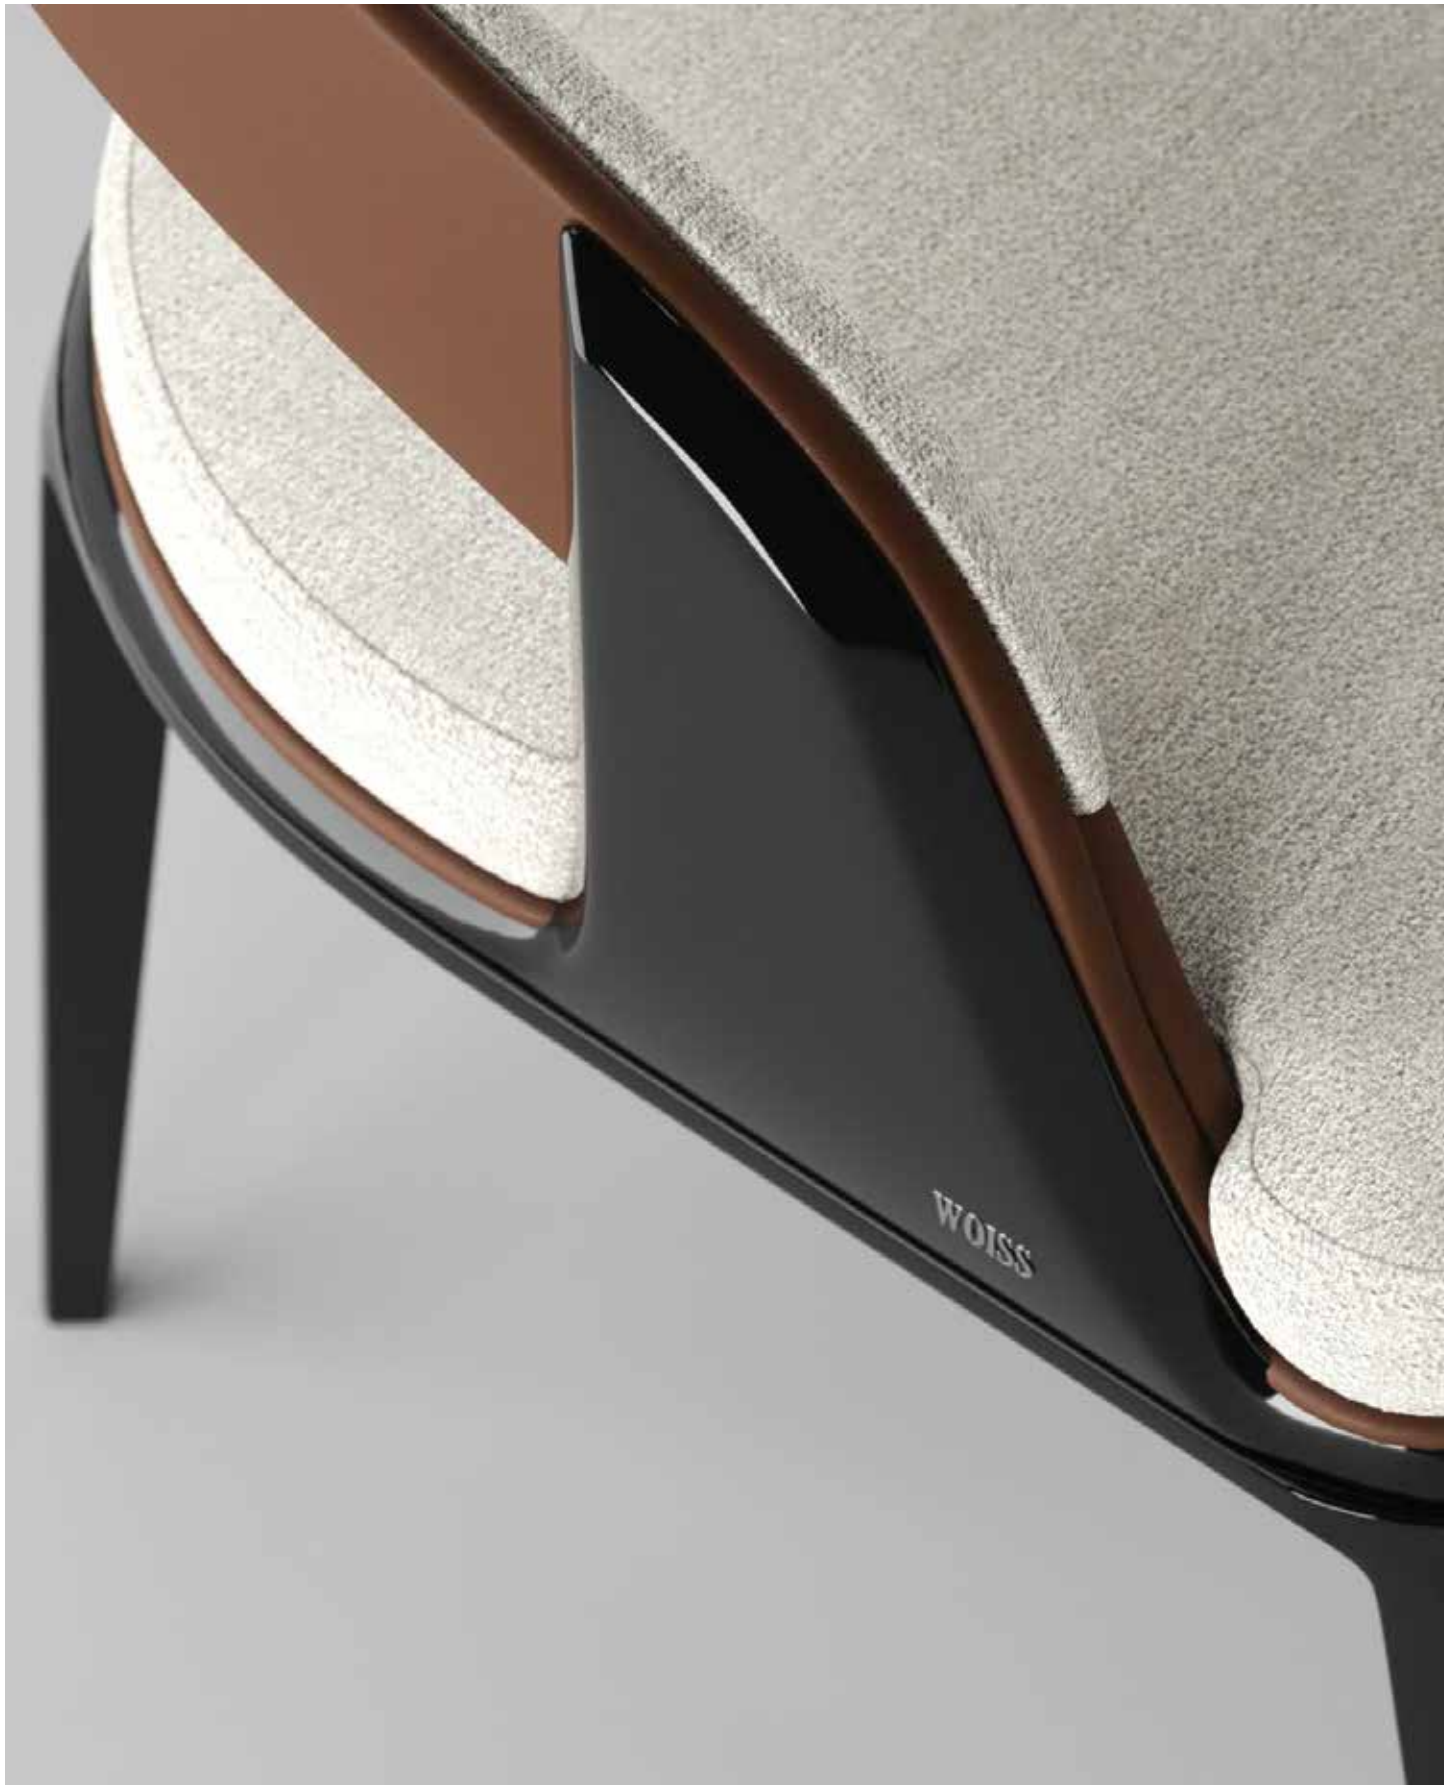

Elevate your dining experience with our elegance chair, a perfect blend of innovative design and premium materials. This chair is crafted for maximum comfort and style, making it an ideal addition to an

ROHE CHAIR

Design

The chair features an elegant curved backrest that provides ergonomic support while maintaining a chic silhouette. Its minimalist design seamlessly blends with various interior styles, from modern to transitional.

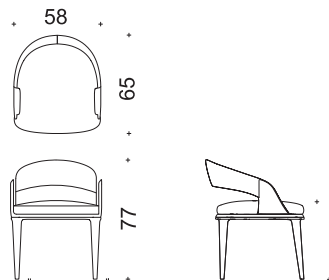

Materials

Seat Cushion: Upholstered in high-quality, durable fabric that offers a soft-touch feel. The neutral color provides versatility for complementing any decor.

Backrest: Finished in a striking dark brown genuine leather, accentuating the chair's contemporary aesthetic while ensuring easy maintenance.

Base: Constructed from sturdy solid wood, the chair is reinforced for stability and longevity. The sleek black finish not only enhances the design but also ensures durability against wear and tear.

Care Instructions: Wipe clean with a damp cloth for easy maintenance. Avoid exposure to direct sunlight to preserve the longevity of colors and materials.

We strive to design parts that make the positivity and optimism we see in the world tangible. With the products we manufacture, we aim to improve the environment we live in and inspire a positive outlook in those around us.

ROHE TABLE

Rohe embodies purity in form and precision in craft. Its sculpted wooden base and refined tabletop create a harmonious dialogue between structure and lightness. Every curve and edge is thoughtfully balanced to express quiet strength. A table that turns simplicity into a statement of timeless design.

ROHE TABLE

Tabletop

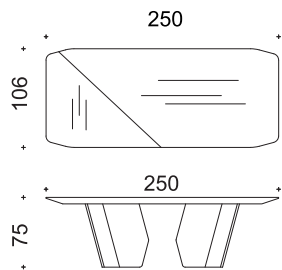

Crafted from Italian bookmatched wood veneer, the tabletop showcases a natural mirror pattern that emphasizes harmony and precision. Its edges are carefully thinned and refined, then color- enhanced with a custom finish, giving the surface both depth and visual lightness.

Legs

Formed through a custom-designed mold, the legs feature a distinctive sculptural form, enriched with genuine leather cladding. This combination of craftsmanship and material luxury defines the table's strong yet elegant character.

Design Essence

Balancing architectural strength with tactile refinement, Rohe stands as a true expression of modern craftsmanship — where natural materials and sculptural design meet in timeless simplicity.

Nevertheless, this vision is not just limited to our products. We believe that every instance of interaction we have with our customers is an opportunity to spread positivity and optimism.

ROHE SIDEBOARD

Elevate your living space with our stylish and contemporary sideboard, designed to blend functionality with aesthetic appeal. This sideboard is an embodiment of modern design, featuring a sleek silhouette that fits seamlessly into any room decor.

ROHE SIDEBOARD

Materials

Top Surface: Crafted from high-quality engineered wood with a smooth, matte finish, ensuring durability and easy maintenance.

Body: Constructed from wood veneered with a rich finish that provides a striking contrast.

Side Frame: Elegant genuine leather in a textured, Weiss monogram pattern, adding sophistication and a tactile element to the design.

Storage Options

Equipped with four spacious cabinets, making it ideal for storing essentials and keeping your space organized.

Design Aesthetic

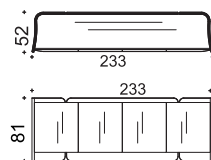

The sideboard features clean lines and a minimalist design, perfect for modern and contemporary interiors. Its combination of wood and textured genuine leather provides a unique visual appeal, ensuring it serves as a statement piece in your home.

Versatility

ROHE COFFE TABLE

Composed of modules with varying heights and surfaces, the design creates a layered presence within the space. Glass, wood, and a softly upholstered element come together through fluid lines and rounded forms. More than a coffee table, it becomes a calm yet confident focal point in everyday living.

ROHE COFFETABLE

Modular Structure

Offered as a flexible modular system, the design is composed of complementary elements that can be used together or independently. The combination of distinct surfaces and varying heights allows it to adapt effortlessly to different living scenarios, creating dynamic and balanced compositions.

Materials

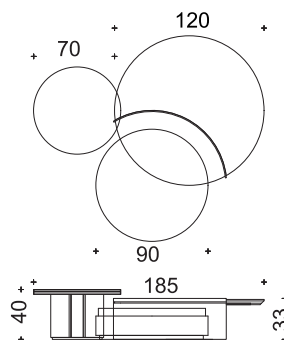

The design brings together a refined palette of wood veneer, glass, metal, and upholstered surfaces. Each material is selected for its tactile quality and visual calm, creating a harmonious dialogue between warmth, transparency, and structure.

Form & Craftsmanship

Defined by pure geometry and softened edges, the form reflects architectural clarity with a subtle sense of softness. Precise detailing and smooth transitions between materials highlight the craftsmanship behind its understated elegance.

Design Essence

Designed as a versatile centerpiece, the table balances functionality with sculptural presence. Its modular character and material richness make it a timeless addition to contemporary interiors, where flexibility and refinement coexist.

We are inspired by the mysteries and wonders of the universe. We believe that the key to an excellent design is the feeling of discovery originating from a moment of curiosity. We are looking for new perspectives and ideas that will guide our work.

ROHE SIDE TABLE

Rohe brings architectural calm to a compact form, blending soft curves with grounded strength. Its rounded top and sculpted base create a quiet rhythm, turning a small piece into a subtle focal point. Designed to complement any setting, Rohe adds a touch of refined simplicity wherever it stands.

ROHE SIDE TABLE

Top

The tabletop combines crafted genuine leather with premium glass, creating a refined surface that is both tactile and elegant. This blend of materials adds visual depth and a luxurious finish.

Leg Structure

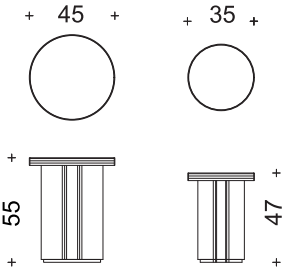

The base is formed by three curved legs that meet at the top on a metal circular plate, providing exceptional stability and a sculptural appearance. The construction emphasizes balance, precision, and durability.

Wood Veneer Detailing

Each leg features wood veneer applied in different directions, enhancing the design with subtle texture shifts and a sense of artisanal craftsmanship.

Design Essence

Defined by its interplay of leather, glass, wood, and metal, Rohe stands as a unique side table — a piece where material harmony and architectural form come together in a distinctive, contemporary expression.

We get our inspiration from every source, from the natural landscape to the complicated models of daily life. This approach allows us to see beyond what is superficial and uncover latent patterns and connections that could be overlooked by others' eyes.

ROHE BEDSTEAD

Rohe welcomes you like a quiet piece of architecture, gently carrying the weight of the day away. Its wide headboard and soft surfaces bring not only comfort, but a sense of order to the room. Every detail is restrained, yet thoughtfully composed. With Rohe, sleep feels less like an escape and more like a return to balance.

ROHE BEDSTEAD

Headboard

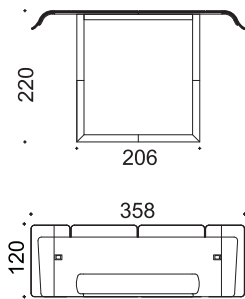

The headboard features a refined combination of expert leather craftsmanship and premium fabric, creating a balanced contrast of texture and elegance. This harmony defines Rohe's distinctive character and visual depth.

Upholstery

Finished with high-quality fabric, selected for its softness, durability, and long-term performance. The material maintains its form and comfort even with extended daily use.

Base Structure

The bed base is engineered for strength and longevity, built to withstand intensive use while providing stable support. Its solid construction ensures reliability without compromising the refined appearance of the design.

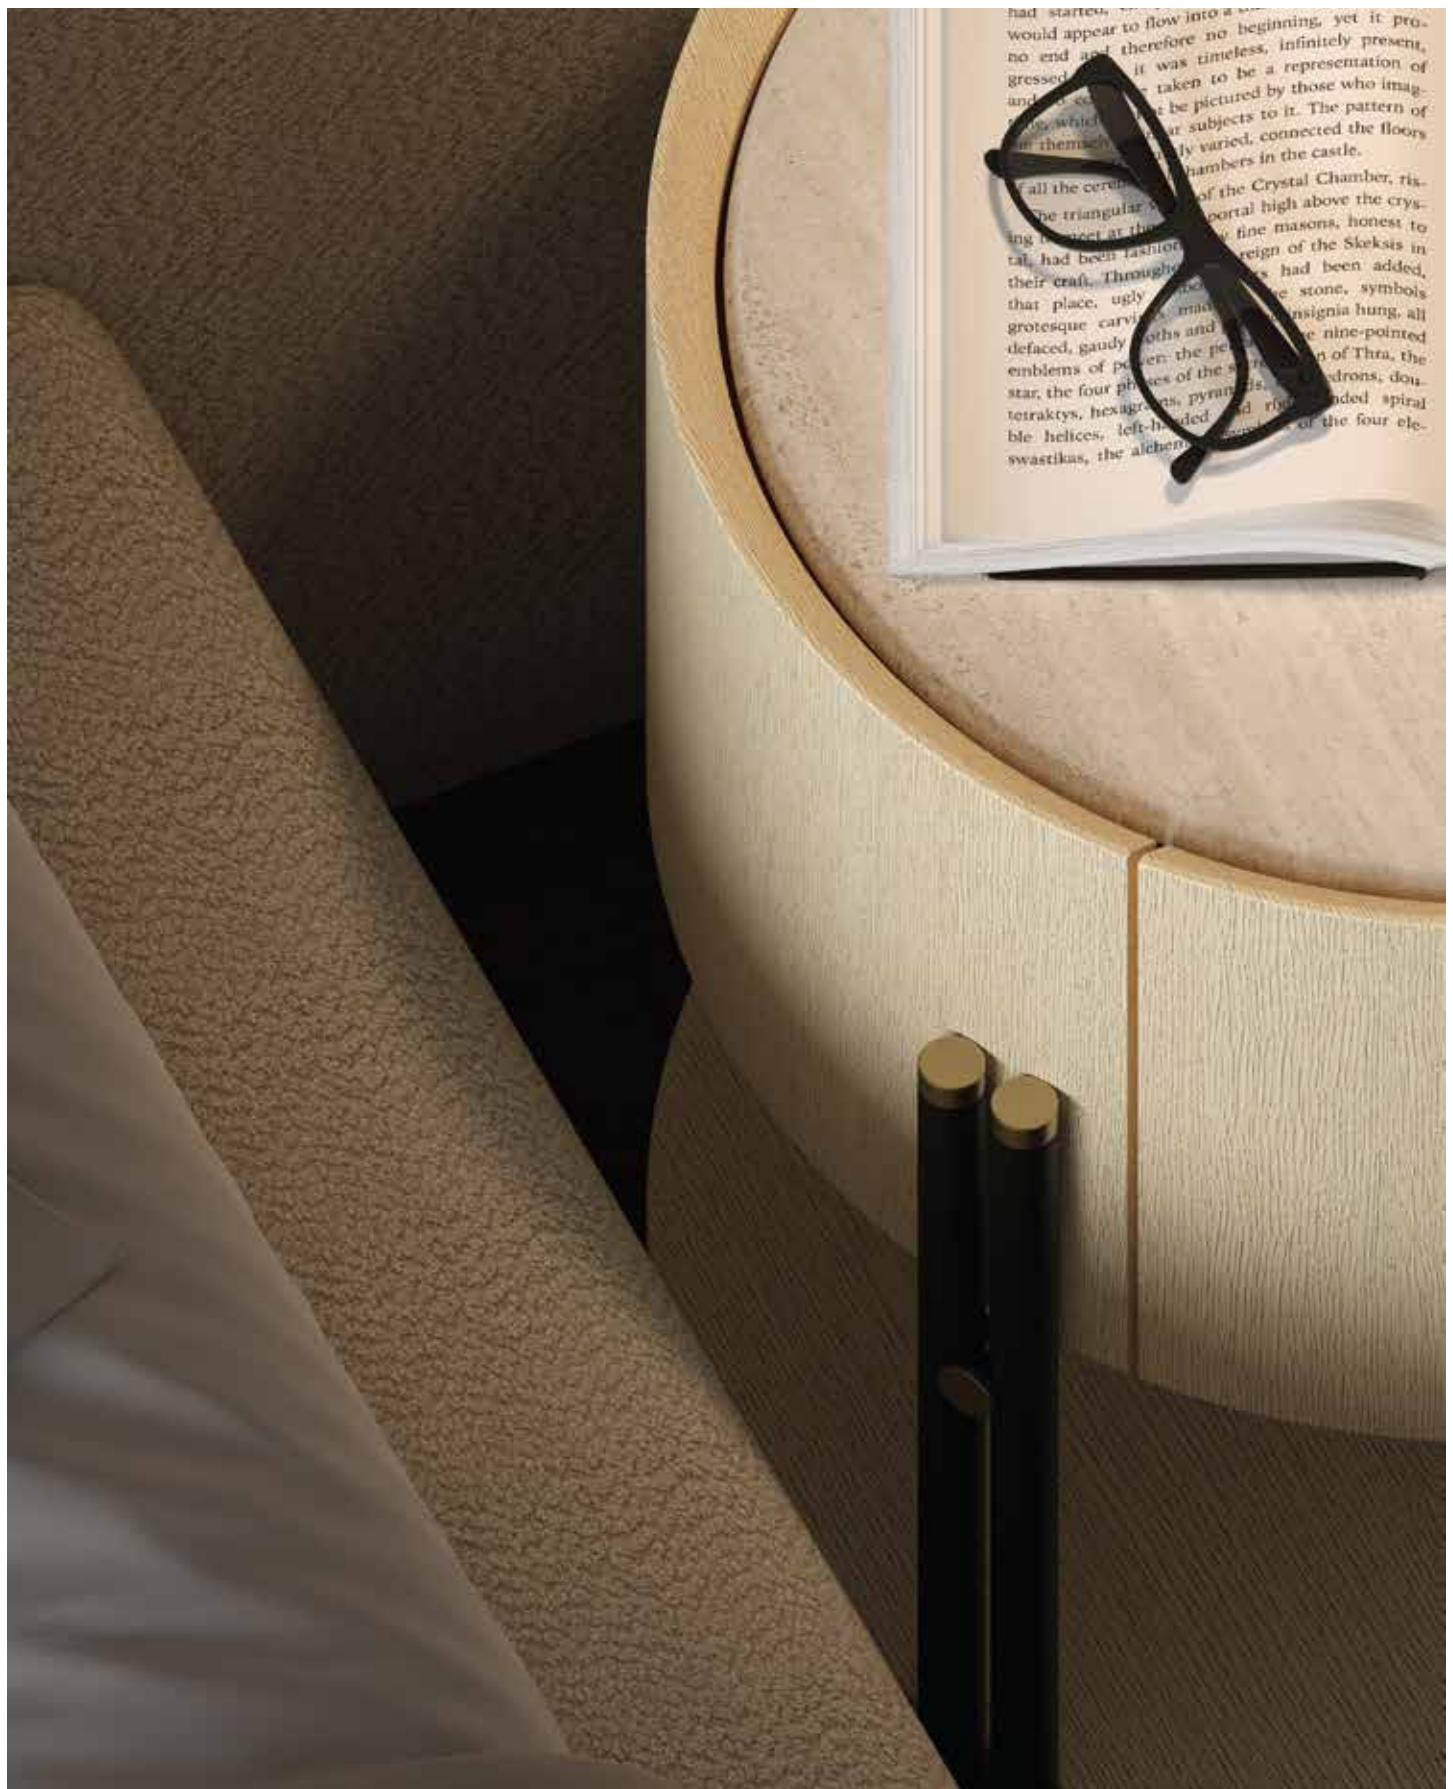

We believe in the potential of our products to enrich your life. Every object around us has the function of making our lives more beautiful or uglier. We are proud to manufacture products that enrich and improve your life.

ROHE NIGHTSTAND

Rohe stands quietly beside the bed, holding the small rituals of the night and the first light of morning. Its soft textures and balanced form bring a sense of calm without asking for attention. In its simplicity, it becomes a silent companion to rest, order, and everyday moments.

ROHE NIGHTSTAND

Leg Structure

The base is built on a black metal frame, highlighted with contrasting metal legs in a different finish, creating a subtle yet distinctive visual separation and a contemporary character.

Drawer

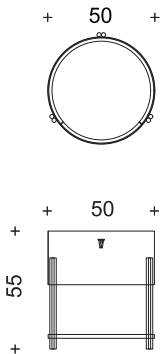

The drawers are finished in genuine leather upholstery, offering a refined tactile quality and elevating the overall sense of craftsmanship.

Surface Options

Rohe is available with wood veneer or natural marble top alternatives, allowing flexibility in both aesthetic expression and interior styling.

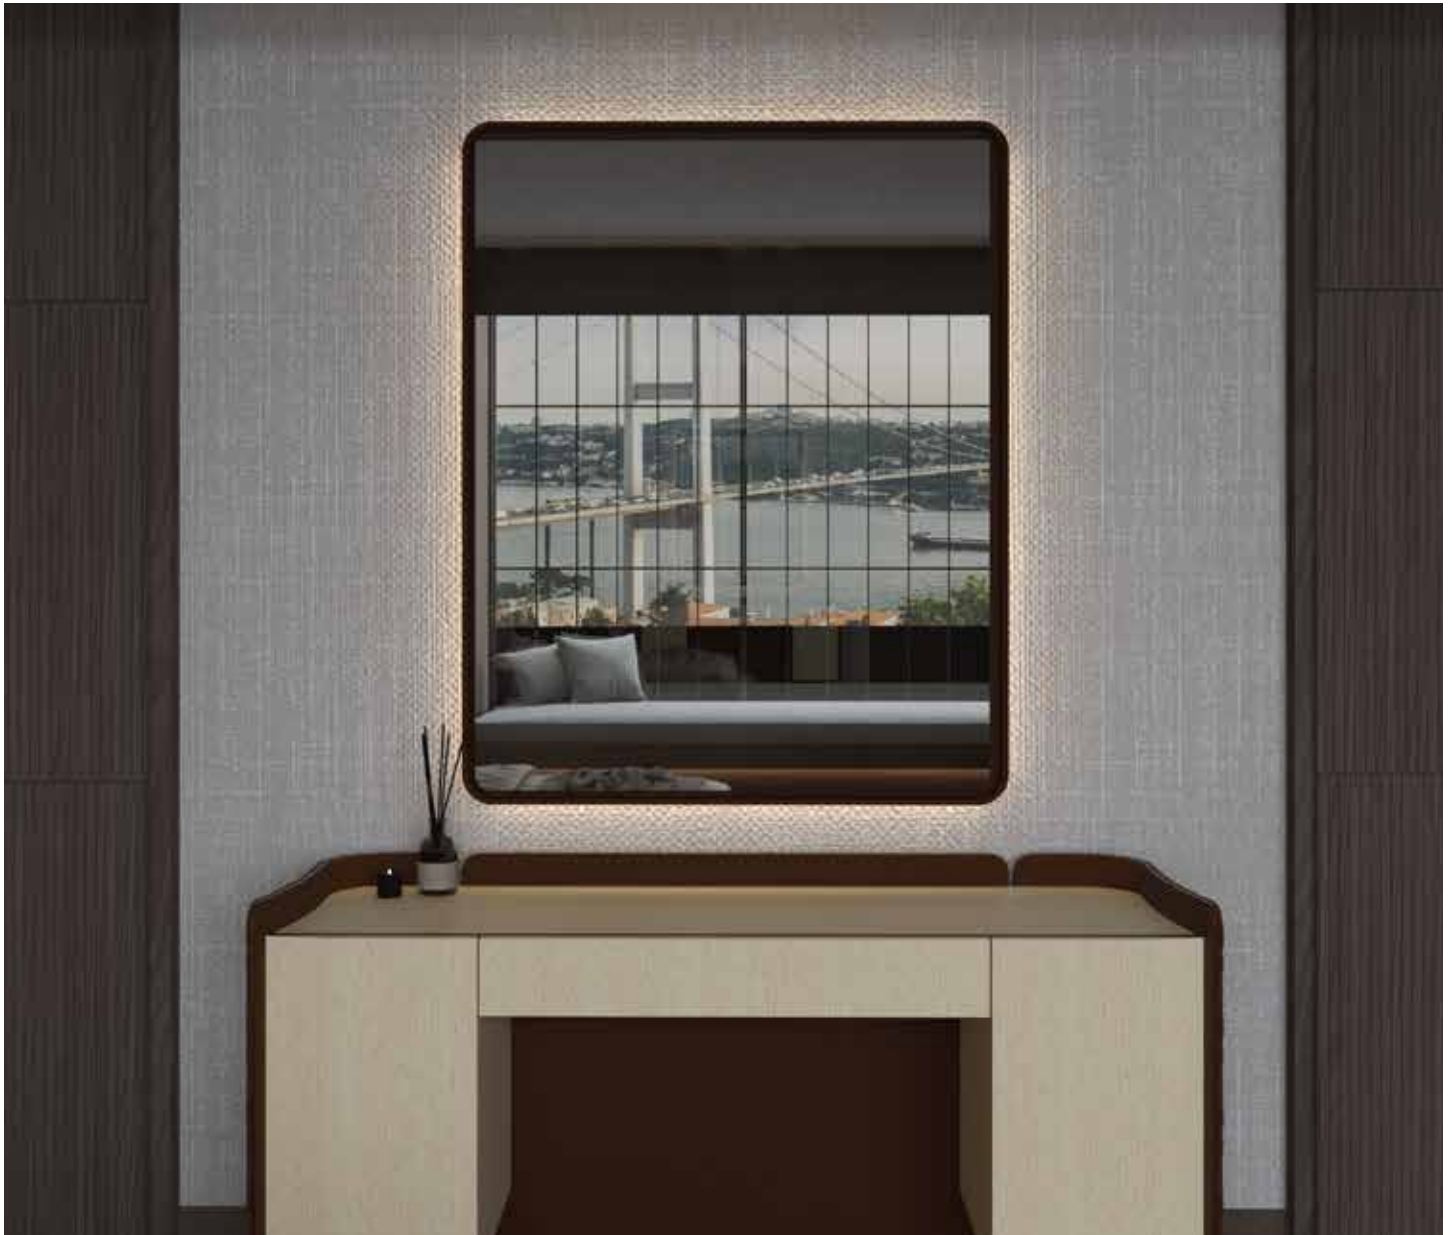

Design Essence

A precise balance of metal, leather, wood, and stone defines Rohe—a bedside piece where material contrast and functional elegance meet in a compact architectural form.

We are proud to offer high-quality products to our customers at fair prices. Our focus is not to provide the cheapest items possible but to ensure that you get the best value for your investment.

ROHE DRESSER

Rohe begins the day in silence, holding reflections, fabrics, and small personal rituals in perfect order. Its calm geometry and rich textures create a quiet balance between function and presence. Without seeking attention, it shapes the room with clarity and confidence.

ROHE DRESSER

Storage Capacity

Designed with a generous internal volume, Rohe offers ample space for organized storage, combining practicality with refined form.

Leather Details

Subtle genuine leather accents enrich the exterior, adding depth, warmth, and a distinctive handcrafted character.

Illuminated Mirror

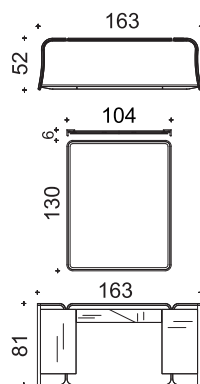

The mirror is framed in genuine leather and features integrated internal lighting, providing soft, functional illumination while enhancing the overall elegance of the design.

Drawer Interior

All drawers are fully lined with premium suede, offering a luxurious touch and protecting personal items with refined care.

Design Essence

Rohe brings together storage, material sophistication, and subtle technology in a dresser designed to elevate everyday rituals.

We wholeheartedly believe in the transformative power of our furniture, and we are confident that our products are the right choice for everyone who wants to upgrade their living spaces. We are aware that furniture is not only associated with aesthetics but also intertwined with the concepts of comfort, functionality, and practicality. For this reason, we strive to design products that are not only beautiful and inspiring but also comfortable, durable, and easy to use. In our opinion, excellent furniture should always do more. It should inspire sensations and keep them engaged, and it should raise feelings of joy, curiosity, and discovery. This is why we put the entirety of our energy and care into each part we manufacture. We aim to make sure that every product is a real masterpiece. Our commitment to excellence and attention to detail will appear in every seam, every joint, and every finish. Be it a comfortable and inviting living room, a functional and productive office space, or a warm bedroom, we always have excellent furniture items that will help you realize your dreams. While choosing your furniture with us, you will not only choose the durability and design that will survive the test of time but realize that you have made an investment that will bring your home joy, beauty, and comfort for years to come.
